PREAMBLE

It is the intent of the Parties to this Agreement to ensure that municipal services are provided efficiently and effectively. Therefore, the Parties agree:

- (1) To maintain and improve relations between the Town and its Employees and to provide the Parties to this Agreement with a clear understanding of their respective rights and responsibilities;
- (2) To recognize the mutual value of joint discussions and negotiations in matters pertaining to working conditions and employment;
- (3) To encourage efficiency in operations and ensure orderly and legal collective bargaining between the Parties to this Agreement; and
- (4) To facilitate the peaceful adjustment of any disputes and grievances and to prevent any strikes or lockouts.

ARTICLE 1 – INTERPRETATION AND EXTENT

- 1.01 In the event that any word, phrase, sentence, Section or Article of this Agreement is declared invalid by any court of competent jurisdiction, only such work phrase, sentence, Section or Article, shall be affected, and this Agreement shall be otherwise unaffected and shall continue in full force and effect.

ARTICLE 2 – DEFINITIONS

- 2.01 Employer shall mean the Town of Irricana.
- 2.02 Union shall mean the Canadian Union of Public Employees, Local 37.
- 2.03 Union Steward shall mean a Union Job Steward
- 2.04 Union Representative shall mean a Union National Representative or a Union Steward.
- 2.05 Employee shall mean a person assigned to a position falling within the scope of this Agreement.
- 2.06 Permanent Employee shall mean either a Full-time or Part-time Employee who is filling a permanent position and who has successfully completed the required probationary period.
- 2.07 Full-time Employee shall mean an Employee who is normally required to work thirty-seven point five (37.5) hours or thirty-five (35) hours as outlined in Article 13 Hours of Work.

- 2.08 Part-time Employee shall mean an Employee who is hired to work regularly scheduled shifts but who works less than the full-time hours of work.
- 2.09 Temporary Employee shall mean an Employee who is filling an established temporary position for a pre-determined period of time or one who has been hired for a pre-determined task. The term of a Temporary Employee shall not exceed twelve (12) months without mutual agreement of the Parties.
- 2.10 Seasonal Employee shall mean an Employee occupying a seasonal position established by the Employer, and who is required to work on a temporary basis for no longer than six (6) months.
- 2.11 Casual Employee shall mean an Employee who works occasionally, usually on a call-in basis, and is not regularly scheduled.

ARTICLE 3 – TERM OF THE AGREEMENT

- 3.01 This Agreement shall be in force and effect from January 1, 2025 up to and including December 31, 2026 and from year to year thereafter unless notice of the desire to amend the Agreement is given in writing by either Party to the other with not less than sixty (60) days nor more than one hundred and twenty days (120) prior to the expiry of the Agreement.
- 3.02 Changes to this Agreement may be made by mutual agreement between the Parties during the term of this Agreement, provided that such changes are properly reduced to writing, ratified and executed by authorized representatives of the Parties to this Agreement.

ARTICLE 4 – RECOGNITION

- 4.01 The Employer recognizes the Union as the sole bargaining agent for all Employees within the scope of Certificate File Number 73-2006 issued by the Alberta Labour Relations Board, namely: "All Employees".
- 4.02 The Town of Irricana Campground Manager shall be excluded from the terms and conditions of this Agreement.
- 4.03 Persons hired on government temporary job creation programs or student training programs shall have a designated supervisor and shall be excluded from the Collective Agreement provided the term of the work does not exceed four (4) months.
- 4.04 No Employee shall be required to make an agreement with the Employer which conflicts with this Agreement.
- 4.05 The CAO and any out of scope supervisor may perform the functions of a bargaining unit Employee for purposes of instruction, in an emergency, when bargaining unit Employees are not available to perform the work or provided the act of performing the work does not reduce the hours of work or pay of any Permanent Employee.

ARTICLE 5 – UNION SECURITY

- 5.01 The Employer shall by the 15th day of each month remit to the Union the dues deducted for the preceding month and a written statement of the name of the Employee for whom the deduction was made and the amount of each deduction.
- 5.02 The yearly dues paid by an Employee shall be recorded on their T4 slip issued by the Employer.
- 5.03 The Union shall advise the Employer, in writing, of any change in the amount of dues to be deducted from the Employees covered by this Collective Agreement. Such notice shall be communicated to the Employer at least thirty (30) days prior to the effective date of the change.
- 5.04 The Employer shall provide the Union annually with the names, addresses and phone numbers of all Union members.

ARTICLE 6 – MANAGEMENT RIGHTS

- 6.01 Subject to the provisions of this Agreement, the Union acknowledges that it is the exclusive function of the Employer to manage its operations and direct the working force, including but not limited to the following:
- (a) The right to maintain order, discipline, and efficiency, formulate and enforce rules and regulations, policies and practices to be observed by Employees; the right to change and abolish rules and practices as the Employer sees fit; the right to discipline, suspend, discharge Employees for just cause.
 - (b) The right to direct, select, hire, transfer, assign to jobs and shifts, promote, demote, classify, lay off, and recall Employees subject to the provisions of this Agreement.
 - (c) The sole and exclusive right and jurisdiction over all operations, buildings, machinery, equipment and Employees shall be vested in the Employer, the right to schedule operations and number of shifts, the right to determine methods, job content and quality and quantity standards, the right to use improved methods, machinery and equipment; the right to decide on the number of Employees needed by the Employer at any time, the number of hours and days to be worked and starting and quitting times.
- 6.02 Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Employer retains all rights not expressly limited by the terms of this Agreement.

ARTICLE 7 – NON-DISCRIMINATION

- 7.01 Neither the Employer nor the Union will discriminate in any manner against an Employee based on a prohibited ground of discrimination recognized by the Alberta Human Rights, Citizenship and Multiculturalism Act or based on membership or non-membership in the Union.
- 7.02 The Employer agrees to implement a Respectful Workplace Policy, to be contained in the Town's Policy Manual, which shall apply to all Town Employees. The Employer also agrees to include the subject of a Respectful Workplace in staff and management training sessions.

ARTICLE 8 – UNION ACTIVITY ON EMPLOYER PREMISES

- 8.01 Except as expressly permitted by this Collective Agreement, there shall be no Union activities on Employer time or on Employer property without the prior permission of the Chief Administrative Officer (“CAO”) or their designate.
- 8.02 The Employer will provide a bulletin board for the posting of Union notices. All Union notices shall be first approved for posting by the CAO, such approval shall not be unreasonably withheld.

ARTICLE 9 – UNION REPRESENTATION

- 9.01 The Employer will recognize the Union elected or appointed Union Stewards provided they are Employees of the Employer who have completed their probationary period and who have acquired seniority under this Collective Agreement. The Union shall notify the Employer in writing of the names of the Union Stewards. The number of Union Stewards shall be limited to two (2).
- 9.02 Union Stewards shall suffer no loss of regular pay when processing grievances under Steps 1 and 2 of the Grievance Procedure. The Union acknowledges that the Union Stewards have their regular work to perform as Employees of the Employer, and it is therefore agreed that they shall not leave their work to process a grievance or undertake any other Union business during working hours without prior consent of their supervisor. Such permission shall not be unreasonably withheld.
- 9.03 The Union will notify the Employer in writing of those Union Officer(s) authorized to conduct business of the Union and enter into Agreements on its behalf.
- 9.04 Collective Bargaining Leave
- No more than two (2) Employees shall attend collective bargaining sessions as scheduled between the Employer and the Union, for the purpose of negotiating collective agreements between the Parties. The Union shall pay the wages of the Employees while attending collective bargaining sessions.

ARTICLE 10 – NO STRIKES AND LOCKOUTS

- 10.01 The Union agrees that it will not cause, authorize, sanction, or permit Employees to cause or take part in any strike during the term of this Agreement.
- 10.02 The Employer agrees that it will not cause or sanction a lockout during the term of this Agreement.

ARTICLE 11 – DISCHARGE, SUSPENSIONS AND DISCIPLINE

11.01 Disciplinary Action

Whenever an Employee is disciplined, and the discipline is intended to be a matter of Management Records, the Employee shall have the right to have a Union Representative present at the meeting when the discipline is given.

- 11.02 The Employee shall be given, in writing, the facts upon which the Employer is basing its disciplinary action, whether it is a verbal warning, written warning, suspension, or discharge.

11.03 Discharge Procedure

An Employee who has completed their probationary period may be dismissed, but only for just cause and only upon authority of the Chief Administrative Officer. A Department Head may suspend an Employee but shall immediately report such action to the Chief Administrative Officer. When an Employee is discharged or suspended, the Employee may be given an opportunity to be heard in the presence of a Union Representative. Such Employee and the Union shall be advised within two (2) business days in writing by the Chief Administrative Officer of the reason for discharge or suspension.

ARTICLE 12 – GRIEVANCE PROCEDURE

- 12.01 A grievance shall be defined as any difference arising out of the interpretation, application, administration, or alleged violation of this Agreement. The Union or the Employer may file a policy grievance. A policy grievance involves a dispute involving a question of general application or interpretation of this Agreement or where the Union or Employer grieve the actions or omissions of the other.
- 12.02 An Employee may have the assistance of their Shop Steward and/or a Union Representative at any time during the Grievance and Arbitration Procedure.
- 12.03 For the purpose of this Article, the time limits shall be working days Monday to Friday, exclusive of General Holidays.
- 12.04 By mutual agreement between the Parties, the time limits specified in this Article may be extended at any Step. Extension requests by either Party shall not be unreasonably denied.

- 12.05 Should the Employee or the Union fail to comply with any of the time limits specified in this Article, the grievance will be considered to be abandoned.
- 12.06 Should the Employer fail to comply with any time limits specified in this Article, the grievance shall automatically move to the next Step on the day following the expiry of the particular time limit.
- 12.07 Policy and termination grievances shall commence at Step 2.
- 12.08 Grievance Steps:

Step 1

An Employee, with or without the assistance of the Shop Steward and/or a Union Representative shall first seek to settle the dispute in discussion with the CAO or their designate within ten (10) days from the date of the incident giving rise to the grievance.

Step 2

Failing settlement at Step 1, the Employee and the Shop Steward and/or Union Representative shall within ten (10) days of the Step 1 meeting, submit the grievance in writing to the CAO.

The written grievance shall contain the following information:

- (1) A summary of circumstances giving rise to the grievance,
- (2) The provision(s) of the Agreement considered, and
- (3) The particulars of the remedy sought.

The CAO or their designate shall reply to the Union in writing within ten (10) days of receiving the grievance.

Step 3

Failing satisfactory settlement at Step 2, the grievance may be referred to Arbitration pursuant to Alberta Labour Relations Code within ten (10) days of receipt of the Step 2 decision.

Written notice of a grievance to arbitration shall include the name, address and business phone number of the referring Parties' appointed member of the arbitration board. The recipient of the notice shall, within ten (10) days, advise the other Party of the name, address and business phone number of its appointed member of the arbitration board.

The two (2) appointees shall, within ten (10) days of the appointment of the second of them appoint a third person who shall be the Chairman.

If the appointees fail to agree upon a Chairman within the time limit (or such longer period of time as may be mutually agreed) then the Director of Mediation Services may be requested by either Party to appoint a qualified person to act as a Chairman.

The Arbitration Board shall not make any decision inconsistent with the provisions of this Agreement or make any decision which would alter, modify, amend, add to, or subtract from any part of this Agreement.

Each Party shall bear the expenses of their appointee to the board. The expenses of the Chair shall be shared equally by the Parties.

A grievance may, upon agreement of both Parties, be submitted to a single Arbitrator.

Option - Mediation Process

A grievance may, upon agreement of both Parties, be submitted to Mediation for possible resolution before accessing the Arbitration process as explained in Step 3 of the Grievance Procedure. However, if Mediation is not agreed to by both Parties, or if mediation fails to settle the dispute, the grievance shall proceed to arbitration. Should the dispute proceed to Mediation, the Parties shall share equally the costs of the Mediator.

ARTICLE 13 – HOURS OF WORK AND OVERTIME

13.01 This Article defines the normal hours of work and provides the basis for calculating overtime. It will not be construed as a guarantee of hours of work per week, or of days of work per week. The Employer reserves the right to establish the start and end time of shifts for Employees within the bargaining unit. The Employer shall give a minimum of forty-eight (48) hour notice before any change of shift, unless mutually agreed upon by the Employee and Employer.

13.02 The regular hours of work for Full-time Outside Employees will be seven and one-half (7.5) hours per day and thirty-seven and one-half (37.5) hours per week, Monday through Friday. The regular hours of work for Full-time Inside Employees will be seven (7) hours per day and thirty-five (35) hours per week.

These hours will be exclusive of an unpaid meal break of 30 minutes and include two (2) fifteen (15) minute paid rest breaks. By mutual agreement, the meal break and rest breaks may be taken as a single sixty (60) minute break.

13.03 Times for shifts to commence and end will normally be:

(a) Inside Workers:
8:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m.

(b) Outside Workers:
7:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m.
7:30 a.m. to 3:30 p.m.
8:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m.

- 13.04 Except in the case of fire, flood, sewer problems, water problems, storms and such other emergency work, notice of change to the Employee's hours and days of work will be posted one (1) week in advance of any change.
- 13.05 Where an Employee is required to work hours in excess of their regular hours of work, all such excess hours of work will be considered overtime and will be paid at one and one half (1½) times their regular hourly rate.
- 13.06 Instead of cash payment for overtime, an Employee may choose to receive time off at the appropriate overtime rate. The Employee will advise the Employer of their preference. Such time off shall be mutually agreed to by the Employee and the Employer.

Time off in lieu of overtime payment can be banked to a maximum of sixty (60) hours. Banked time not used shall be paid to the Employee as per Article 17.03.
- 13.07 All overtime must be authorized by the Employer.
- 13.08 Employees will record their daily hours worked on time sheets provided by the Employer and will submit them through the process specified by the Employer.

ARTICLE 14 – TOWN HOLIDAYS

14.01 The following will be observed as General Holidays:

New Year's Day	Civic Holiday
Family Day	Labour Day
Good Friday	Thanksgiving Day
Easter Monday	Remembrance Day
Victoria Day	Christmas Day
Canada Day	Boxing Day

Should one of the General Holidays fall on either a Saturday or Sunday, the following Monday shall be observed as the holiday. However, if Christmas Day falls on either a Saturday or Sunday and is observed on the Monday, Boxing Day shall be observed on the Tuesday.

- 14.02 Eligible Employees will be paid for the regular number of hours which would have normally been worked by them on the General Holiday, at the Employee's regular straight time rate of pay.
- 14.03 An Employee required to work on any of the above designated General Holidays shall receive two times (2x) their regular straight time rate for work performed on the General Holiday.
- 14.04 An Employee is not entitled to General Holiday pay:
 - (a) if the Employee has not been employed for thirty (30) days during the preceding twelve (12) months, or;

- (b) if the Employee does not work on a General Holiday when scheduled to do so unless absent because of a certified medical illness or other reason acceptable to the Employer, or;
- (c) if the Employee is absent from their regular employment without the consent of the Employer for all or part of their last regular working day preceding or their first regular working day following the General Holiday, or;
- (d) if the Employee is on layoff status, Maternity Leave, Paternity Leave, or Adoption Leave, Workers' Compensation or on Sick Leave on the date of the General Holiday.

14.05 If a General Holiday falls within the annual vacation of an Employee, the Employer shall, if the holiday is one to which the Employee would have been entitled if not on vacation, give the Employee;

- (a) a holiday on what would have been the first day back, or by agreement, on another day; or
- (b) General Holiday pay of a sum that is at least equal to the average daily wage of the Employee.

14.06 When Christmas Eve or New Year's Eve falls on a weekday (e.g., Monday to Friday) the Employer shall provide permanent Employees with a half day off, with pay, except in the case of fire, flood, sewer problems, storms and such other emergency work.

ARTICLE 15 – VACATIONS

15.01 Employees are entitled to vacation with pay calculated at thirty-seven and half (37.5) hours per week at the Employee's regular rate of pay, after they have completed each year of continuous employment as follows:

Years of Continuous Employment	Vacation Time	% of Earnings
1 – 3 years	2 weeks	4% of regular pay
4 – 7 years	3 weeks	6% of regular pay
8 - 10 years	4 weeks	8% of regular pay
11 years plus	5 weeks	10% of regular pay

15.02 The Employer shall grant vacation to Employees in accordance with Article 15.01.

15.03 Where an Employee is terminated, the Employee shall receive as applicable 4%, 6%, 8% or 10% of their regular earnings in lieu of vacation pay.

15.04 Vacation Scheduling

- (a) the Employer shall make available a vacation schedule planner for each department by January 15th of each year with all identified blackout periods posted.
- (b) All tentative annual vacation requests from Employees shall be received by the administrative prior to January 31st in any calendar year.
- (c) Annual vacation requests will be awarded based on seniority. The Employer shall confirm the Employees vacation request by March 1st.
- (d) Should the Employee request vacation/time off prior to the confirmed vacation schedule, Employees shall provide a minimum of two (2) business days' notice prior to commencing vacation of three (3) days or less.

For vacation of four (4) days or more, the Employee shall provide a minimum of fourteen (14) days' notice.

- (e) When an Employee requests vacation after January 31st, the Employer will approve any remaining available vacation based on seniority provided the request does not interfere with the already awarded vacation of other Employees.
- (f) For changes or cancellations to an Employee's approved vacation schedule the Employee shall provide a minimum of fourteen (14) days' notice when possible. These requests should not be unreasonably withheld and will be reviewed on a case-by-case basis.

15.05 In some circumstances, the Employer may direct an Employee to use their vacation, including specific dates, if:

- (a) There is a reasonable belief that the Employee would not otherwise take the minimum amount of vacation required by statute.
- (b) The Employee's vacation accrual exceeds their annual entitlement.

Prior to directing an Employee to take vacation, the Employer and Employee shall meet and attempt to identify mutually agreeable dates.

15.06 Vacation Blackout Periods

By January 15th of each year, the Employer will provide Employees with a list of dates during which time off (e.g., Vacation, bank time, personal days) may not be scheduled.

15.06.01 Blackout periods are periods where Employees may not be approved to take the above mentioned. These blackout periods:

- (a) Must be at least three (3) consecutive days in length.

- (b) Wherever possible, such blackout periods shall not be scheduled in conjunction with a statutory holiday.
- (c) May not total more than fifteen (15) working days in a calendar year.
- (d) May not occur between December 18 and January 2 (inclusive).

15.06.02 Indoor Staff Blackout Periods

The Employer will provide Indoor Staff with a list of dates during which time off (e.g., vacation, banked time) may not be scheduled.

15.06.03 Outdoor Staff Blackout Periods

The Employer will provide Outdoor Staff with a separate list of dates during which time off (e.g., vacation, banked time) may not be scheduled.

15.06.04 Overlap of Blackout Periods

Although Indoor and Outdoor Staff will have separate Blackout Periods, these periods may overlap. The Employer will ensure that scheduling and staffing needs are met without unnecessary restrictions on either group.

ARTICLE 16 – WAGES & PAYMENT

- 16.01 The Employer shall pay during the life of this Agreement, the Schedule of Wages as set forth in Schedule “A”.
- 16.02 All Employees shall be paid on a bi-weekly basis. Employees' wages shall be paid in accordance with Schedule "A" of this Agreement.
- 16.03 On each pay day the Employee shall receive an itemized statement of their pay including hours worked, hourly rate, premiums, and deductions.
- 16.04 Once a month an Employee will receive a statement of their accrued vacation and banked overtime.

ARTICLE 17 – CALL OUT & STAND BY PAY

- 17.01 All Outside Workers will be subject to call out. An Employee who is called out and required to work outside of their regular hours of work will be paid a minimum of two (2) hours at overtime rates and overtime in accordance with Article 13 thereafter. Calls within two (2) hours of each other will be considered one (1) call out.
- 17.02 When an Employee is on standby service with the Employer, the Employee will be compensated as follows:

Monday to Friday inclusive: one and one half (1½) hours basic rate.

Saturday, Sunday and Statutory Holidays: (2) hours basic rate.

Employees on standby will be readily available and in a fit condition to return to duty immediately upon request.

- 17.03 Standby service will be done on a voluntary basis by Outside Workers. Where insufficient Employees volunteer, the Employer reserves the right to assign standby. A list of Employees who agree to work standby service will be established by January 31st of each year. The list will be operated on a rotational basis and will ensure that there is one (1) Employee available for standby service at all times. Receiving or placing any phone calls, including calling out Employees as required, which potentially or actually, result in a call out will not attract call out pay or any other pay in addition to standby pay.

Employees will have the option to bank their standby hours. Banked time not used by the end of the fiscal year will be paid out.

ARTICLE 18 – BENEFITS

- 18.01 Providing a Permanent Full-time or Part-time Employee successfully completes the probationary period, meets the qualifying periods of employment for coverage for full time and part time employment and meets any other requirements for participation as determined by the Insurer, the Employer agrees to pay the percentage of the premiums for the following insurance coverage:

Employer's portion of Premiums, January 1, 2024:

- (a) Basic Group Life: 100%

Two (2) times the Employee's annual earnings, as determined by the insurer, rounded upwards to the next highest $1000.00 if not already an even thousand. The coverage amount will be adjusted as the salary changes. The minimum amount is $10,000 and the maximum is $250,000.

- (b) Accidental Death and Dismemberment: 100%

The principal amount of insurance will match the Employee's Basic Group Life coverage amount. Details of coverage, including a schedule of losses shall be determined by the insurer.

- (c) Extended Health Care: 100%

Coverage at 100% reimbursement for reasonable and customary eligible expenses as determined by the insurer.

- (d) Vision Care: 100%

The Vision Care plan provides a flat $400 Vision Care benefit at time periods as determined by the insurer.

(e) Dental Care:	100%
Basic and Diagnostic	100% reimbursement
Dentures	100% reimbursement
Major Restorative	80% reimbursement

The benefit calendar year maximum is $2,000 per insured Employee for all coverage combined and for each eligible dependent. Employees who are eligible for dental care after July 1st of any year will be limited to $750 per insured person.

(f) Long Term Disability:	100% Employee paid
Elimination Period	120 days
Own Occupation Period:	Two (2) Years
Monthly Benefit:	66 2/3% of monthly pre-disability earnings
Maximum Benefit Period:	To age 65, recovery or death, whichever occurs first
Maximum Monthly Benefit:	$4,500
Benefit Tax Status:	Non - Taxable

(g) Short Term Disability:	100% Employee paid
Elimination Period:	Hospitalization Nil
	Accident Nil
	Illness 7 days
Weekly Benefit:	66 2/3% of weekly pre-disability earnings
Maximum Benefit Period	17 weeks
Maximum Weekly Benefit:	$750.00
Benefit Tax Status:	Non - Taxable

(h) Employee Assistance Plan	100%

As per the Canadian Revenue Agency disability benefits become a taxable benefit if any portion of the premium is paid by the Employer.

18.02 The provisions of the insurance policies and plans shall govern with respect to eligibility and benefits provided by the insurer to the Employee. The Town's responsibility under this Article is limited to the payment of premiums to purchase the insurance coverages listed in Article 18.01. The Town has no liability for the failure or refusal of the insurance carrier to honour an Employee's claim or to pay benefits and no such action on the part of the insurance carrier will constitute a breach of this Agreement by the Town. No dispute arising under or related to this Article will be subject to the grievance and arbitration procedures, except where the Town has failed to pay the premiums required to purchase the insurance coverages for the benefits listed in Article 18.01. The Employer retains the right to change insurance carriers.

18.03 The Employer agrees that if it changes insurance carriers, they will notify the Union.

18.04 All permanent full-time Employees are eligible to participate in a Group RRSP Plan. Should an Employee choose to participate in the Employer-provided Group RRSP, the Employee shall contribute six percent (6%) of gross monthly earnings, excluding any overtime, call out pay, standby pay, benefit premiums or any other premiums. The Group RRSP payment shall be deposited directly into a Group RSP in the Employee's name on every pay period.

The Employee must contribute at least one percent (1%) of gross earnings to participate in the Group RRSP Plan.

The Employer will also match additional contributions, up to a maximum of ten percent (10%) of gross earnings, as specified below:

Employee Contribution	Employer Contribution	Total Employer Contribution
1%	6%	6%
2%	6%	6%
3%	6%	6%
4%	6%	6%
5%	6%	6%
6%	6%	6%
7%	6% + 1%	7%
8%	6% + 2%	8%
9%	6% + 3%	9%
10%	6% + 4%	10%

It is the responsibility of the Employee to manage RRSP contributions, including those which an Employee may have outside of the Group RRSP, in compliance with Canada Revenue Agency requirements including, but not limited to, maximum annual contribution limits and lifetime contribution limits.

18.05 Healthy Lifestyles Program

The Employer will reimburse Employees the amount of one thousand two hundred and fifty dollars ($1250.00) per year upon proof of enrollment in, and payment for any activity, program, class, equipment, supplies, or any other item that promotes a generally healthy lifestyle.

ARTICLE 19 – SICK LEAVE

19.01 Sick Leave means the period an Employee is absent from work with full pay due to illness.

19.02 Permanent Full-time Employees will be entitled to eight (8) days of Sick Leave per year, allocated on January 1st. Sick Leave may be used to address illness, hospitalization, and health related appointments (e.g. Medical, dental, paramedical).

For Employees joining after January 1st of any given year, Sick Leave shall be prorated to the nearest full day.

Permanent Part-time Employees will be entitled to fifty percent (50%) of Full-time Sick Leave, rounded up to the nearest full day.

19.03 Sick days will be reduced for absence due to illness or accident, except where the illness or accident is otherwise covered by Weekly Indemnity (Short Term Disability), Long Term Disability Benefits or by Workers' Compensation coverage.

19.04 If proof of illness is required by the Town, the Employer may require a certificate from the Employee's attending Medical Doctor. Such requirements will not be unreasonably imposed.

19.05 All Employees reporting sick shall notify the CAO or designate at least one hour prior to the commencement of their shift unless extenuating circumstances make this impractical.

19.06 An Employee who has been off work for more than thirty (30) days shall inform the Employer at least two (2) weeks, (or such shorter period that may be agreed upon), in advance of the return to work date.

19.07 When an Employee is off work due to a disability for more than thirty (30) calendar days, and there is no established date the Employee will be able to return to work within two (2) years from the first date of disability, the Employer will post and fill the position in accordance with Article 25 with the following provisions:

(a) In the event the Employee on disability returns to work within the period of two (2) years from the date of the posting, the Employee filling the position will be returned to their former position;

(b) In the event the Employee is unable to return to their position within two (2) years after the first date of disability, the Employee's employment will be terminated, then the position will be posted and filled permanently in accordance with Article 25, Vacancies Promotions and Temporary Assignments.

(c) Notwithstanding the foregoing, if before the expiry of two (2) years after the first date of disability it is apparent to the Employer and the Union that the Employee shall not be able to return to work for medical reasons within the two (2) years, the position shall be declared vacant and posted and filled permanently in accordance with Article 25, Vacancies Promotions and Temporary Assignments. Any Employee that was moved because of this arrangement shall be returned to their former position.

19.08 Family Sick Leave

If no one is available to care for the unexpected needs of a spouse, common law spouse, child, parent, or anyone that the Employee regularly provides care for, an Employee may use up to four (4) days of Sick Leave with pay to provide care. Family Sick Leave does not apply for scheduled medical appointments or procedures.

ARTICLE 20 – PROBATIONARY EMPLOYEES

20.01 During the first three (3) months of employment, an Employee shall be considered a probationary Employee and at any time during this period, their employment may be terminated, and such termination shall not be subject in any manner to the Grievance or Arbitration Procedure.

ARTICLE 21 – LEAVE OF ABSENCE

21.01 An Employee who has been employed by the Employer for a minimum of three months may request in writing, a leave of absence without pay to a maximum of sixty (60) calendar days. Such leave of absence may be granted at the discretion of the Employer, provided that the Employee has exhausted all vacation time and banked overtime earned up to the time of the leave of absence request. An Employee who does not return to work at the expiration of the leave of absence shall be considered to have voluntarily quit their employment.

21.02 Should the request be for a leave of absence for Union business, no more than one (1) Employee shall be granted leave at the same time and no more than one (1) Employee from a department will be granted such leave. Approval of such leave will be subject to the needs of the operation and will not be unreasonably denied.

21.03 An Employee shall be granted one (1) day with pay to attend to the birth or adoption of their child.

21.04 Maternity, Parental or Adoption Leave shall be provided in accordance with Employment Standards Code.

21.05 Personal Days - Permanent Full-time Employees and Part-time Employees shall be entitled to three (3) personal days, without loss of pay, each calendar year of this Agreement, provided they have been employed with the Town for at least three (3) months.

An eligible Employee requesting a Personal Day must provide prior written reasonable notice to the CAO.

Personal Days shall be allocated on January 1st and cannot be banked year-over-year nor paid out if unused.

ARTICLE 22 – BEREAVEMENT LEAVE

- 22.01 In the event of a death in the immediate family of a Permanent Full-time or Part-time Employee, who has successfully completed their required probationary period, the Employer shall provide the following:
- (a) Bereavement Leave up to a maximum of seven (7) consecutive working days with pay upon the death of a spouse, common-law spouse, child, stepchild, parent or spouse's parent, brother, sister, brother-in-law, sister-in-law, son-in-law, daughter-in-law, grandfather, grandmother and grandchild, niece/nephew, aunt/uncle.
 - (b) One (1) working day of Bereavement Leave without pay to attend the funeral of a person not referred to in paragraph (a) above, with the approval of the CAO.
- 22.02 Bereavement Leave shall not apply to a Permanent Full-time or Part-time Employee on a leave of absence, off work on disability benefits, layoff, or off work on Workers' Compensation benefits.
- 22.03 Employees may, with permission from the Employer, take their Bereavement Leave within one (1) year of the death to be taken as a continuous period.

ARTICLE 23 – JURY OR CROWN WITNESS DUTY

- 23.01 The Employer will pay the Employee their normal hourly earnings for the day(s) spent serving Jury Duty provided the Employee has completed their probationary period; provides proof of Jury service; and remits to the Employer the check they received from the Court for Jury Duty.
- 23.02 An Employee subpoenaed by the Crown as a Witness will be paid their normal hourly earnings for time spent in Court provided the Employee has completed their probationary period and provides a copy of the Crown Subpoena to the Employer.

ARTICLE 24 – SENIORITY

- 24.01 Seniority shall mean the length of continuous permanent service with the Employer from the Employee's date of hire within the bargaining unit. Seniority shall be calculated on completion of the probation period, retroactive to the Employee's date of hire.
- 24.02 Seniority shall be recognized only where specifically referenced in this Agreement.
- 24.03 The Employer will supply the Union a seniority list setting out the names and starting dates with the Employer once a year.

- 24.04 An Employee shall lose their seniority and forfeit all rights and the Employer is under no obligation to rehire when:
- (a) the Employee resigns or retires,
 - (b) the Employee is discharged for just cause,
 - (c) the Employee overstays their authorized leave of absence,
 - (d) the Employee is absent without authorized leave in excess of three (3) consecutive shifts, or
 - (e) the Employee is granted and accepts severance payment under Article 26.02 of this Agreement.
 - (f) In this Article days shall exclude Saturday, Sunday and paid Holidays.

ARTICLE 25 – VACANCIES, PROMOTIONS AND TEMPORARY ASSIGNMENTS

- 25.01 All full-time job vacancies within the scope of the bargaining unit shall be posted for a period of five (5) working days. Employees to be selected shall be determined on the basis of qualifications, skills and ability. Whereas between two (2) or more Employees, there exists in the opinion of the Employer equal qualifications, skill and ability, seniority shall be the deciding factor. A copy of the job posting shall be sent to the Union.
- 25.02 Where an Employee is promoted to a position outside of the bargaining unit, they shall be permitted to retain their seniority for a period of three (3) months from the date of the transfer.
- 25.03 When an Employee is temporarily assigned to fulfill the duties of a higher paid position, excluding the position of CAO, for a period of three (3) weeks or longer they shall be paid the higher wage rate under this Agreement for such time(s) as they perform the duties of the position.

25.04 Learning Rate

Notwithstanding Article 25.03, when an Employee is temporarily assigned to:

- (a) Limited duties of a higher paid position for which they meet the minimum requirement(s);

OR

- (b) Full duties for a higher paid position for which they do not meet the minimum requirements;

they shall be paid the premium (“Learning Rate”) as described below:

For assignments of:

- (a) one (1) month, 25% of the wage difference between the two roles shall be provided as a Learning Rate;
- (b) More than one (1) month and up to six (6) months, 50% of the difference shall be provided as a Learning Rate;
- (c) More than six (6) months, 75% of the difference shall be provided as a Learning Rate.

If the Employee meets the minimum qualifications of the higher paid position and takes on full duties of it, they shall be entitled to the full wage of the higher paid position per Article 25.03.

Unless specifically detailed in the Professional Development Agreement between the Employer and the Employee, no Learning Rate shall extend for longer than one calendar year.

An Employee may consult with a Union Representative during the creation of a Professional Development Agreement.

ARTICLE 26 – LAY OFF

- 26.01 In laying off and in recalling Employees from layoff, the Employer will consider the qualifications, skill and ability of the Employees to perform the available work up to the Employer's accepted standard. Where those factors are equal as between two (2) or more Employees, seniority will govern.
- 26.02 Should there be a need to decrease the work force, Employees may be laid off. If the layoff is permanent, the Employer will pay the affected Employee(s) termination pay as follows:

Severance will be paid on the basis of two (2) weeks of regular pay (base rate) for the first ten (10) years with the Town of Irricana service and one (1) week for each year thereafter, to the maximum of fifty-two (52) weeks of regular pay, this amount will be pro-rated for Permanent Part-time Employees.

Upon such payment, the Employee shall have no further action, claim, complaint or grievance against the Employer for the termination of their employment. Payment does not disqualify an Employee from grieving a layoff under Article 26.02 of this Agreement.

ARTICLE 33 – TRAINING AND PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT

33.01 Commitment to Ongoing Development

The Employer supports ongoing training and professional development to maintain and enhance the skills required for effective performance.

Where new or greater skills are required due to changes in methods, technologies, or service delivery, the Employer will make reasonable efforts to provide affected Employees with appropriate training opportunities.

33.02 First Opportunity for Internal Training

Where the Employer determines that training is required to qualify for a newly created or vacant position, such training opportunity shall be posted and communicated electronically to all Employees. Qualified Employees within the bargaining unit shall be given a reasonable first opportunity to access such training, provided that:

- The Employee has expressed interest in the opportunity;
- The Employee meets other minimum job requirements or can reasonably attain them through training;
- The timing and delivery of the training aligns with operational needs.

33.03 Compulsory Training

Employees may be required to participate in training or professional development. If so required, such training will be without loss of pay, and the Employer will be responsible for the cost of the training and any associated materials, unless otherwise agreed.

33.04 Voluntary and Discretionary Training

Where an Employee requests to participate in additional training or development not required by the Employer, the Employer may, at its discretion, approve such training in full or in part, including any associated costs or paid time off.

ARTICLE 34 – CLASSIFICATION AND RECLASSIFICATION

34.01 Review of Classifications

Where the duties and responsibilities of an existing position have significantly changed on an ongoing basis, or where the Union or an Employee believes a position is incorrectly classified, a written request for review may be submitted to the Employer by the Union. The request must include:

- A rationale for the requested review;
- A summary of the duties believed to be inconsistent with the current classification;
- Any relevant supporting documentation.

RE: REMOTE WORK

WHEREAS the Parties recognize that remote work arrangements may, in appropriate circumstances, support operational efficiency, recruitment and retention, and Employee well-being; and

WHEREAS the Parties acknowledge that remote work is not an entitlement and must align with the Town's operational needs;

NOW THEREFORE, the Parties agree as follows:

(1) Definition

Remote Work is defined as an arrangement approved by the Employer in which an Employee performs their regular job duties from a location other than the Town's designated worksites, for all or a portion of their regular work schedule. All Remote Work must occur within Canada.

(2) Policy Development

The Employer will consult with CUPE Local 37 in the development of a Remote Work Policy. This consultation will include:

- Consideration of operational needs and service delivery;
- Equity and consistency in policy application;
- Health, safety, and ergonomic considerations
- Roles and responsibilities of both the Employer and Employee

(3) Management Rights

Final authority for the content, implementation, amendment, and approval of individual Remote Work arrangements rests solely with the Employer in accordance with Article 6 - Management Rights.

(4) No Precedent or Entitlement

Nothing in this Letter of Understanding shall be interpreted as creating a right to work remotely or establishing a precedent for future arrangements.

RE: COLLABORATIVE JOB DESCRIPTION REVIEW

WHEREAS the Parties share a mutual interest in ensuring that job descriptions accurately reflect the duties, responsibilities, qualifications, and expectations of each position within the bargaining unit;

NOW THEREFORE, the Parties agree:

(1) Purpose and Scope

This initiative is intended solely to review and update the descriptive content of job descriptions, including tasks, responsibilities, required qualifications, and experience. Wage rates, classification levels, or placement on the wage grid will be subject to collective bargaining.

(2) Timelines

The job description review will commence within six (6) months of ratification and be completed within twelve (12) months. This timeline may be extended by mutual agreement.

(3) Process

- The Union may provide feedback or recommendations on proposed job descriptions.
- The Union may also identify roles it believes are missing or undefined.
- The Employer will give such input due consideration, particularly with respect to accuracy and completeness.
- Where consensus is not reached, the Parties will proceed as outlined in Article 34 - Classification and Reclassification.

(4) Dispute Resolution

This Letter of Understanding does not limit or amend any rights under the Collective Agreement unless expressly stated.

RE: EXPEDITED ARBITRATION

The Employer and the Union agree to trial an expedited arbitration process during the life of this Collective Agreement as follows:

- The Parties may elect to forward any non-precedent setting individual or discipline grievances through the expedited arbitration process.
- The Parties agree to use Arbitrator Rick Wilson for the expedited arbitration process. If Rick Wilson be unavailable, the Parties shall confer to appoint another arbitrator. Should no agreement be reached, an arbitrator shall be appointed by the Ministry of Labour.
- The Parties may agree not to use lawyers to represent them in expedited arbitration.
- The Parties may agree to schedule multiple grievances to be heard in a single day of arbitration.
- The Parties shall attempt to agree on the facts relevant to the grievances and if unable to agree shall each produce a written brief outlining the facts, the issues and the arguments.
- Presentations of the grievances shall be short and concise and will include opening statements.
- The Parties shall make every reasonable attempt to minimize the use of witnesses and may agree to supply witness statements in lieu of examination in chief.
- The arbitrator may assist the Parties in mediating a resolution of the grievance(s).
- Whenever possible, the arbitrator shall deliver their decision orally at the conclusion of the hearing and confirm their conclusions in writing thereafter.
- The decision of the arbitrator shall be final and binding upon the Parties.
- The arbitrator's fees and expenses shall be shared by the Parties.

LETTER OF UNDERSTANDING #5

Between

The Town of Irricana
(Hereinafter referred to as “the Employer”)

And

Canadian Union of Public Employees Local 37
(Hereinafter referred to as “the Union”)

RE: GROUP RSP ELIGIBILITY – COMMUNICATIONS COORDINATOR

The Parties acknowledge that Article 18.04 of the Collective Agreement limits Group RSP participation to permanent full-time employees.

The Town has created a Communications Coordinator position structured at thirty (30) hours per week. An existing permanent full-time Administrative Person 2 has been selected for appointment to this position.

In recognition of the member’s prior eligibility and participation in the Group RSP plan, and given that the Communications Coordinator position is scheduled at thirty (30) hours per week, the Parties agree as follows:

1. The member shall be permitted to continue participating in the Group RSP plan while employed in the Communications Coordinator position, notwithstanding the thirty (30) hour work schedule.
2. This continuation of eligibility shall apply only while:
 - The member remains in the Communications Coordinator position; and
 - The position remains scheduled at thirty (30) hours per week.
3. Should the scheduled hours of the position be reduced below thirty (30) hours per week, eligibility under this Letter of Understanding shall cease.
4. Should the position be restructured to thirty-five (35) hours per week or greater, eligibility shall be governed by Article 18.04 of the Collective Agreement and this Letter of Understanding shall be deemed no longer necessary.
5. This Letter of Understanding does not amend Article 18.04 of the Collective Agreement and shall not be relied upon as precedent for any other position or circumstance.
